

Press Release

December 18, 2007 - Summit Group Software, Inc. announced today that it has reached terms to acquire Lakeridge Consulting Services of Toronto, Canada. The acquisition will be completed in early 2008. Lakeridge Consulting Services will become Summit Group Software Canada, a wholly owned subsidiary of Summit Group Software, Inc. Kristi Honey, founder and current President of Lakeridge Consulting, will assume the role of President of Summit Group Software Canada as well as shareholder and board member of Summit Group Software, Inc.

“Lakeridge Consulting Services and Summit Group Software are a great fit”, said Eric Gjerdevig, President of Summit Group Software. “Our companies share the same values and vision for the future. Together we are natural partners to offer our customers an overall greater level of customer service and expertise. In addition, Toronto and Canada as a whole is a great market with incredible growth potential.”

Summit Group Software, founded in 2005, is a Microsoft Gold Certified Partner focused on delivering business solutions based on Microsoft Dynamics GP and Microsoft Dynamics CRM. They are headquartered in Fargo, ND with an office in Chicago, IL. Summit Group Software’s goal is to improve the business success of their clients by providing an incomparable level of information technology services and solutions.

Lakeridge Consulting Services, founded in 2004, is a Microsoft Certified Partner located in Whitby, Ontario. The consulting team at Lakeridge Consulting consists of Microsoft Business Solutions Certified Professionals and Microsoft Certified Trainers specializing in Microsoft Dynamics GP. Lakeridge Consulting Service’s mission is to provide exceptional service in enabling their clients to realize their potential.